GEORGIA
CLAYTON COUNTY
2020 MAR 13 PM 1:31
PROBATE COURT

PROBATE COURT OF CLAYTON COUNTY

STATE OF GEORGIA

ORDER REGARDING ALL HEARINGS DURING JUDICIAL EMERGENCY

On March 13th, 2020, Chief Judge Geronda V. Carter of the Clayton County Superior Court signed an Order declaring a Judicial State of Emergency for the Clayton County Court Circuit due to the Coronavirus/ COVID-19 pandemic. Whereas, it has been determined that the Judicial Emergency substantially endangers and infringes upon the normal functioning of the judicial system as it relates to jury service. Therefore:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED Adult Guardianship hearings set for April 9th, 2020, Specially set for March 31st, 2020, and Specially set Emergency cases shall continue as previously scheduled.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if it becomes necessary to continue these cases, an individual Order shall issue.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all other cases that are on the Court docket through and including April 10th, 2020, are here by CONTINUED. A separate Order shall issue in each case, as to hearing individual dates.

SO ORDERED this 13th day of March 2020

Pam Ferguson, Chief Judge

Atha H. Pryor, Associate Judge

Clayton County Probate Court
121 S. McDonough Street, Annex Bldg. 3
Jonesboro, Georgia 30236