Clayton County Board of Commissioners

Clayton County is one of Georgia's smallest counties in land size with an area of 146 square miles. Yet, with more than 260,000 residents, it is one of the most densely populated counties in the state.

The Clayton County Board of Commissioners is the governing authority of the county. The board consists of a full-time chairman (elected county-wide) and four part-time commissioners (elected by districts). All serve staggered, four-year terms.

Business Meetings

Regular meetings are held on the First, Second, and Third Tuesday of every month at 7:00 pm in the Boardroom located at 112 Smith Street, Jonesboro, GA. Pre-meetings is held at 6:30 pm in the Commissioner's conference room.

Zoning Meetings

The Board of Commissioners shall consider zoning matters as part of the Board's Agenda of its regular meeting held on the second Tuesday of each month. If they have zoning issues to discuss.

All meetings and pre-meetings are open to the public except for those occasions involving matters that are specifically exempt by the Georgia Open Meetings Law.
