Commissioner Sonna Singleton to Host Reception For

Dr. Pauline Knight-Ofosu

Civil Rights Freedom Rider and Rex resident to be honored by Commissioners

Jonesboro- Commissioner Sonna Singleton, (District 1), will host a reception for civil rights activist and Freedom Rider, Dr. Pauline Knight-Ofosu of Rex, Georgia, in honor of the 50th Anniversary of the Freedom Rides. The reception will take place on Tuesday, May 17, at 5:30pm at the Board of Commissioners Office located at 112 Smith Street.

Dr. Knight-Ofosu first became involved in the Civil Rights Movement while attending Tennessee State University (TSU). It was in 1960, when Dr. Pauline Knight-Ofosu, became an active member of The Student Central Committee of the Nashville Christian Leadership Council while attending what is now known as Tennessee State University (TSU). A year later in 1961 the 20 year old student participated in the Freedom Rides which resulted in her arrest and imprisonment in Jackson, MS. After returning to school she was expelled from the university. Dr. Knight-Ofosu and other TSU Freedom Riders filed a lawsuit, Pauline Knight, et. Al. vs. Tennessee State Board of Education et. Al. The ruling resulted in her reinstatement and she graduated in 1962.

“As we celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Freedom Rides I wanted to especially acknowledge Dr. Pauline Knight-Ofosu, a resident of Clayton County”, said Singleton. “She was among those many brave men and women, black and white, who put their lives in danger to help end segregation in all interstate public transportation facilities throughout the South during those rides. It is truly an honor for me to hold this reception in her honor.”

Later that evening at the 7:00pm Business Meeting a proclamation will be presented to Dr. Knight-Ofosu for her dedication to civil rights and her many other accomplishments.
