

Author Book Signing

June 26, 2012

6:30 p.m.

Georgia
ExploreGeorgia.org

The National Archives at Atlanta

Rachel L. Swarns

You are cordially invited to attend a Book Signing for Author Rachel L. Swarns,
New York Times Correspondent
on Tuesday, June 26, 2012,
6:30 p.m.

The National Archives at Atlanta
5780 Jonesboro Road
Morrow, Georgia 30260

Ms. Swarns will be speaking and signing copies of her new book,
"American Tapestry: The Story of the Black, White, and Multiracial Ancestors of Michelle Obama."
Books will be available for purchase
on-site from Barnes & Noble Southlake.

There is no cost to attend the event;
however, each attendee must register at [www.claytoncountyga.gov/
michelleobamabook](http://www.claytoncountyga.gov/michelleobamabook)

A confirmation and invitation will be emailed to the address provided and must be presented for admittance.
Attendance is limited to 500.

THE STORY OF THE BLACK, WHITE, AND MULTIRACIAL ANCESTORS OF MICHELLE OBAMA

THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES AT ATLANTA

RACHEL L. SWARNS