FOX 5's Karen Graham to Serve as Special Mayfest Host Good Day Atlanta Co-Host will join thousands of seniors in celebration of Older Americans Month

(Jonesboro, GA) Emmy Award winning Good Day Atlanta co-host Karen Graham will join thousands of Clayton County and other Atlanta area seniors (55 and older) in Clayton County to help celebrate embracing a healthier lifestyle for older Americans. In recognition of Older Americans Month in May, Clayton County Senior Services Department will host its annual Mayfest celebration. The free, health and fitness event will take place on Friday, May 10, 2013, at the Clayton County International Park (The Beach) in Jonesboro, from 10 am until 2 pm.

Karen joined FOX 5 as a weekend sports anchor and now can be seen on Good Day Atlanta covering human interest stories all around metro Atlanta. As an avid tennis player and jazz dancer, fitness plays a key role in her personal life. Her energy and presence at Mayfest will assist in promoting Clayton County Senior Services "stay active and fit" goal for seniors as well as the national theme for this year's Older American's Month celebration "Unleash the Power of Age".

Other special Mayfest guests include Good Day Atlanta's traffic reporter, Katie Beasley; 104.1FM radio personality, Youngblood; and various elected and community officials. Last year's Mayfest celebration was attended by over 1,200 seniors. This year's Mayfest attendance number is expected to reach 1,500!
