

You are Invited to Experience

The Artistry of Gutenberg's Bible

the Most Famous of all Rare Books during the Exclusive Exhibition in Georgia

Presented by Arts Clayton and The Lost Gutenbergs

August 3 through September 28
Historic Jonesboro, Georgia

Only the third public exhibit - first at the Gutenberg Museum in Mains, Germany in 2010 and on the National Mall in Washington, DC in 2011 for the 400th King James Expo, and now this exclusive 2012 exhibition in Georgia. You will experience the first full-size, full-color printing of the Gutenberg Bible ever attempted outside of Germany. As printers, Cooper Square captured the splendor of the text in exquisite detail, and today the masterful bookbinding art practiced by Jonesboro, Georgia native Tim Yancey and Michael Chrisman of Long Island, New York complete the protection of this famous work with the re-creation of an historically correct binding.
