Clayton County District 3 Commissioner prepares for county-wide Music and Arts Festival, highlighting talents of surrounding community members

CLAYTON COUNTY, GA – Recently elected Clayton County District 3 Commissioner, Felicia Franklin Warner has been hard at work fulfilling promises and goals set forth during her 2016 campaign. In an effort to highlight Clayton County and its many talented residents, Commissioner Franklin Warner will launch “A Taste of Clayton” – Clayton County’s first arts, music and food festival on Friday, May 5 through Saturday, May 6 at the South Clayton Recreation Center in Hampton!

Kicking off a month of music in conjunction with the Atlanta Jazz Festival, May 26 – 28, 2017, A Taste of Clayton will feature live music by Al Smith, Grammy Award Winning musician – Saunders Sermons, Toni Byrd, Casper and the 911 Band, The Reggie Ward Project, The Apostles of Soul, Lovejoy and Mundy’s Mill High Schools, and paintings by local artist, Selma Glass, to name a few.

MORE

“We’ve got a big event planned this year and I’m super excited to see it come to life,” said Commissioner Franklin Warner. “There are many hidden gems within our community – and I intend on spotlighting them, giving the general public something to look forward to! Come out and support A Taste of Clayton! There’ll be amazing live music, games for the whole family, and vendors for both food and crafts! It’s going to be fun for everyone!”

There is no cost to attend A Taste of Clayton and is FREE to the general public. Visitors are asked to support the vending booths, filled with local artists and food.

A special thanks to our current sponsors, Atlanta Jazz Festival, BluePointe Realty Atlanta – Lee Associates LLC, Clayton County Government, Clayton County Parks and Recreation, FREESStyle Productions, Loggins, Kern and McCombs Certified Public Accountants, and SOLOmedia Communications.
