Chairman Jeffrey E. Turner Named Commissioner of the Year

Jonesboro, Georgia — On March 12, 2015, at the Georgia International Convention Center, the Georgia Minority Business Awards (GMBA) hosted their 18th annual awards reception and dinner gala to celebrate minority businesses and entrepreneurs from around Georgia who are making an impact within their perspective communities. Among those honored was Clayton County Chairman, Jeffrey E. Turner as the recipient of the “Commissioner of the Year Award.”

“I was humbled and honored to receive the award for 2015 Commissioner of the Year from the Georgia Minority Business Association. I share this honor with the citizens of Clayton County because without their support, none of the great things happening in our county would have been possible. I am truly blessed to be the Chairman of Clayton County.”

Please see the attached photo of Chairman Turner holding his recent award for a media feature. For more information, contact Beverly McMichen at (770) 472-8122.
