Garnishee	§

NOTICE TO GARNISHEE

A garnishment action has been filed by the Plaintiff to collect a judgment against the Defendant/Debtor. The Plaintiff is asserting a claim to Defendant/Debtor's bank account or a portion of the Defendant/Debtor's wages. Pursuant to garnishment procedures, the Plaintiff is seeking to have you, as the Garnishee, to send all or some portion of these funds to the court so they can be disbursed to the Plaintiff. Some funds, accounts, and wages are exempt, however, from garnishment. These include Social Security benefits, workers compensation benefits, disability payments and child support payments. There are other exemptions as well, so you should consult an attorney or review the laws to determine if the Defendant/Debtor's funds are exempt from garnishment or if the Defendant/Debtor has filed a claim to exempt funds.

Prior to submitting your answer and transferring any funds to the Clerk of Court, you should determine if the Defendant/Debtor has filed a claim that such funds are exempt from garnishment.
