

CLAYTON COUNTY RECOGNIZES
FOR COMMUNITY ACTIVISM

- WHEREAS: Amy L. Cole is a Mississippi native with an upbringing that is deeply rooted in community service. Involved at an early age in youth initiatives at her local church and community center, Amy is an ambitious and proactive leader; and
- WHEREAS: Amy continued on a directional path to achievement by pursuing an education at the University of Southern Mississippi where she received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration for Management Information Systems and Accounting; and
- WHEREAS: Amy has lived in Clayton County for 8 years and is married to Quency R. Cole. Since 2009, Amy has served as the Board of Directors President of the Villages at Creekside Home Owners Association; and
- WHEREAS: Amy has served on the Association's Board of Directors in some capacity since 2006, including serving as Treasurer. During her terms as President, she has worked diligently with other board members to restore the sense of community involvement back to the Villages at Creekside; and
- WHEREAS: Amy is dedicated to not only serving the individuals within her community, but she provides her time and assistance to several other leading organizations in Clayton County. Amy works with the Feeding Ministry at Fountain of Faith Missionary Baptist Church where she helps prepare meals for the elderly and homeless. She has served as President of the Singles Ministry and Secretary of the Women of Faith Ministry, as well as providing services to the Southern Crescent Habitat for Humanity and Hands on Atlanta; now
- THEREFORE: I, WOLE RALPH, Commissioner, on behalf of the Clayton County Board of Commissioners, do hereby recognize and honor Amy L. Cole for her commitment and dedication to the community. Her contributions to providing a positive vision and image for Clayton County will undoubtedly continue to enhance and improve the lives of those around her.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of Clayton County, Georgia, to be affixed this 15th day of May in the year two thousand twelve.

Wole Ralph, Commissioner
