

Office of Solicitor General State Court of Clayton County

Charles A. Brooks
Solicitor General

RE: Clayton County Solicitor-General's Office Accessibility Notice

In accord with the orders of The Honorable Justice Harold Melton, Chief Justice of the Georgia Supreme Court and The Honorable Geronda Carter, Chief Judge of the Clayton Judicial Circuit, issued on March 14, 2020 and March 13, 2020 respectively. The Office of the Solicitor-General of the State Court of Clayton County will be closed to public access beginning March 16, 2020 thru April 13, 2020. During this period, only essential personnel will be at the office on a limited schedule to address essential court proceedings, public safety and citizen needs.

The main office telephone number is 770.477.3380 and will be answered when personnel is present. However, if you leave a detailed message we will be sure to return your call as soon as possible in the order that the call is received.

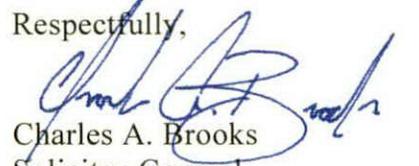

Victims/witnesses concerned with the status of their case can reach a victim advocate at 770.473.4269. If no one should answer the phone, please leave a detailed message with your name, the defendant's name, telephone number and case number. If you have an emergency, please call 911 immediately.

If you are a candidate or participant in the pre-trial diversion program and need assistance related to recording community service hours, the deadline for submitting documents is extended to May 13, 2020, unless instructed otherwise by the Pre-Trial Diversion Coordinator, Carl Freeman. Should you need any other assistance related to the program, please email Carl Freeman at carl.freeman@claytoncountyga.gov.

The Clayton County Solicitor-General's Office is here to assist the State Court of Clayton County address essential court proceedings and ready to continue to serve our community where we can. In these unprecedented times and uncharted territory of major public health concern, we beg your patience and cooperation as we navigate thru this together.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation

Respectfully,

Charles A. Brooks
Solicitor-General,
State Court of Clayton County