Additionally, the link for the hotel will be released on March 16, 2021. The Department does not have a county issued credit card therefore; each person attending must continue to make their own reservations. Once reservations are made, they can be submitted to Finance for payment.

Director Dozier informed the Board that the office is inquiring about the potential of moving into the building with the renovations that are needed to ensure the needs of the office are met. Questions and concerns about renovations were presented to Building and Maintenance and other options outside of the old Code Enforcement building are being explored.
