Chairman Jeffrey E. Turner's Newsletter

*A Message from Jeffrey E. Turner, Chairman
Clayton County Board of Commissioners*

Dear Clayton County Community,

I am excited to highlight some of the amazing activities and resources we have available within our different cities and throughout Clayton County. I want to express my gratitude to all the municipalities, employees, residents, volunteers, the business community, and partnerships that make Clayton County a great place to live, work and play. I am proud of the notable progress in our county we have made working together and with others. So, as we look to the future, let us continue to explore more opportunities to bring additional resources to Clayton County. With your continued support, the Board of Commissioners and I are vested in the continued progress and success of Clayton County! I look forward to our diverse community working together to seek solutions to any challenges we may encounter. So, as we plan for the future, I am hopeful that we are all onboard to fly this journey together as a community.

Yours in service,

Jeffrey E. Turner

Chairman, Jeffrey E. Turner

The Veteran of the Month

Yeoman-Seaman Shontell N. Saunders-Murphy was born and raised in Detroit, Michigan. She joined the U.S. Navy in 1993 and served as Head Master at Arms while in boot camp and while in training school. Shontell became the Yeoman to the Captain and the XO (Executive Officer) of the Recruit Training Command in Orlando, Florida, which was also her first duty station.

Shontell had to end her military career prematurely in 1995 when her newborn daughter was diagnosed with Sickle Cell Beta Thalassemia. Being a single mom at the time, she decided to be honorably discharged to educate herself about her daughter's diagnosis.

To further her education, Shontell attended the University of Phoenix and earned an Associate degree in Business and a dual Bachelor's degree in Business Administration/Healthcare Management from Central Christian College in Kansas. Her educational experience led her to work for United Healthcare as a Network Contract Manager, where she negotiated physician contracts for the Veterans Affairs Community Care Network (VACCN).

Shontell is a proud mother of three daughters, aged 28, 22, and 19, and two granddaughters aged 5 and 2.5, as well as two grandsons aged 8 and 6 months. She is also the Public Relations Officer for AMVETS Department of Georgia and AMVETS POST 9-1-1 in Southwest Atlanta. Shontell's passion is advocating for veterans and their families and others in need in the community.

In her free time, Shontell enjoys spending time with her family, volunteering to help veterans in the community, traveling, and building her Real Estate and E-commerce empire.

How to Have a Healthy Thanksgiving... Here are some tips for staying healthy this Thanksgiving!

1. Unplug: Take this time to break away from the everyday hustle and bustle. Put your phone down, maybe put the phone on silent, and take a break from social media.
2. Take Time for You: Do things that you enjoy and make you happy. It is the simple pleasures that fill our lives with joy like reading a book, a particular kind of exercise, or just lounging around.
3. Eat in Moderation: Avoid overindulging! Try and eat small portions of all the foods you like. Enjoy some dessert too, just a bite of this and a bite of that to satisfy your sweet tooth!
4. Start a New Tradition: Traditions are a good way to strengthen the bond between families, and they say a lot about who we are. There is no better time than the holidays to start new traditions unique to you and your family.
5. Be Thankful: Thanksgiving is the perfect time to be grateful and focus on everything good that is going on all around us and in your life. Enjoy the holiday with family and friends, create special memories, relax, and get some “me time”, all while savoring a piece of pie!
